The Rev. H. D. Devlin, O. C. C., ad-The Rev. H. D. Devlin, O. C. C., addressed the students on "The Meaning of Life." He said the object of the students was to realize the Christian, meaning of life and shape their career accordingly. The Christian knows that life was given him that he might know, love, serve and praise God during his probation in this world and thereby merit eternal union with his Creator in the hereafter. Young people should be in earnest about everything—religious duties, studies, play. This thorouganess moulds character and gives it that self-reliance, that dependableness which is an invaluable aid in life's journey.
